

Athens Bicycle Club Membership Application

Celebrating 41 Years of Cycling in Athens, Ohio in 2012!

Would you like to get involved with fellow community members who also enjoy cycling? Athens Bicycle Club has been a cycling club in Athens, Ohio since 1971. Club members have been instrumental leaders in many developments that have made southeastern Ohio a great place for bicycling and we are proud to live in a place that is wonderful for cycling. Please consider joining ABC and becoming part of a group of local cyclists who are known for rolling up their sleeves and making things happen. We are proud to live and ride in a place that is great for cycling!

ABC activities include:

- Opportunities to network with other cyclists via club meetings, rides, events, and online communication.
- Organizing and promoting cycling through events including group rides, the annual Athens Spring Ride, Tour of Zaleski, the Ride to the Hills mountain bike race, and the Tour of the Hocking, which celebrated its 40th anniversary in 2011!
- Participating in committees and task forces focused on cycling on city streets, county roads, and public lands.
- Advocating for access to off-road trails by developing relationships with land managers, other trail users, and related organizations.
